Concert Of Classical Music Features Three Talented Musicians June 18

(By Peter Pickersgill)

The artistry of three young musicians was heard at the Vulcan United Church, Friday, June 18 when two pianists, Margaret Anne Jamison of Vulcan and Heather Lindstedt of Calgary and violinist, Gwyneth Roberts of Calgary, presented a concert of classical music.

To the 150 adults and young folk in attendance it was a revealing evening. It brought to them a world of new and unfamiliar music — with the exception of a very few of the listeners, anyone claiming to recognize even part of the program was searching for status, not telling the truth — and it revealed three highly mature techniques on the instruments involved.

In naming the evening the sponsoring Couples Club of the United Church called it a Concert of Classical Music. Regardless of whether the listeners understood all that was presented, the fact that complete silence and full attention was given all of the six part program seemed to indicate an appreciation for the experience.

Following introduction of the girls by Bill Shields, Margaret Anne Jamison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jamison, played the Beethoven Sonata in E Flat

Grand Champion winner at the recent Vulcan District 4-H Calf Clubs Show and Sale was Donald Maier of the Lomond club. His 926-pound shorthorn calf went to Canada Safeways, Calgary for 40¢ a pound. Donald is 15 years old and has been in 4-H work since

Weather Picture Soggy

Farmers, usually hoping for rain about this time of year, would now be glad to see warm, sunny weather take over for at least a couple of weeks. This somewhat unusual state of affairs results from the fact that this June has been one of the wettest on record and that crops are now 10 to 14 days later than normal.

Since June 12, there have been few days without rain and the Alberta Wheat Pool crop reports from 15 agents in the County of Vulcan area all show surface moisture as being 90 to 100% of "perfect" and subsoil moisture reserves range from 50 to 100%.

Wheat is starting to reach the shot blade stage and sunshine is needed for growth. Some cutworm damage is reported at Lomond, Armada and Travers and wind damage at Travers is also showing up now. This year's crop is off to an excellent start but weather conditions between now and harvest time will determine just how good a crop is harvested.

Again, our rainfall reports are out of date before they are published, for it has rained every day since these Wheat Pool reports were compiled on Friday, June 21.

At Vulcan, since June 25, there has been an additional 2.14 inches of rain and Peacock reports 2.40 inches of rain at that point last Friday and Saturday. Most of the county, probably, has received at least two inches of rain since June 25 and some areas north of Vulcan have received more.

Dist. 12 FUA Convention Held At Nanton June 23

The annual convention of the District 12 FUA, FWUA and Junior FUA was held in the community centre in Nanton, Wednesday, June 23. There were 63 registered delegates, 12 district officials, four head office officials and five visitors present. There were 21 locals registered from the four sub-districts of Pincher Creek County, Willow Creek County, Vulcan County and Foothills County, including Utopia FU and FW, Nanton FU, Stavely FU, Champion FU, Parkland FU, High River FU and FW, Milo FU, Chinook FU and FW, Summerview FU, Black Diamond FU and FW, East Longview FU, Arrowwood FU and FW, Clear Lake Joint, Red Deer Lake FU, Okotoks FU and Westwind FU.

C. J. Versluis of Champion presided at the opening session and following introductions, called on E. P. Benoit (Okotoks-High River MLA) to lead the invocation and bring greetings from the Town of Nanton and the Province of Alberta. Four chairmen were elected from the floor, George Loeve, Archie Hogg, C. Versluis and May Huddleston.

Following the reading of the last district convention minutes by Mrs. F. H. House of Arrowwood, the district board was introduced to the convention.

Junior FUA president, Ken Jensen of Ponoka addressed the convention, discussing at considerable length the Goldeye Lake FUA camp and its facilities. A new $17,000 building is scheduled to be opened officially July 1st. Mr. Jensen introduced some of the financial problems of the camp urging that all FUA members get behind the project which offers services and benefits to all. He made reference to the Banff courses offered on parliamentary procedure and public speaking.

The noonday banquet speaker was Rev. H. Art Cantelon of the Southminster United Church in Lethbridge. He remarked that there was a close connection between things spiritual and things material in the age in which we live, and although, in many people's opinions, material frontiers were no longer to be found, there were spiritual frontiers to be conquered.

Mr. Cantelon based his remarks on future needs, observing there was need for control, conservation and conviction. Self-control, he said, was far more important than the control of machines and political organizations. He felt a great need for the conservation of things which must be passed on from generation to generation and used the soil of the farmlands as a material example and pointed out that there is more land in the cemeteries of Canada than all the arable land of India today. The skeletal bones of a nation are its convictions and what the nations today need is people who hold convictions so strongly they will be willing to die for them.

Keith Horsburgh and Ann Baker of Nanton provided accordion music by way of entertainment at the banquet.

The newly elected director of FUA District 12 is C. Versluis and the alternate director is Hans Haselman. The District 12 FWUA director is May Huddleston and (Continued on Page 7)

A total of $596 will be turned over to the band for use in the purchase of music, instruments, help in students' tuition and other costs.

Sweeping Changes

Macleod Riding Erased In Electoral Redistribution

The federal constituency of Macleod is wiped out in the new electoral map which is to be submitted to Ottawa for approval in September. The constituency is split up between the newly created ridings of Crowfoot, Palliser, Rocky Mountain and Lethbridge. Most of the County of Vulcan will be included in the new Crowfoot constituency. Carmangay and Barons will be in the Lethbridge riding.

The proposed redistribution creates two new urban constituencies, one at Edmonton and one at Calgary, and will increase Alberta's representation in Parliament to 19 seats from the present 17. No constituency boundaries were left unchanged in the new electoral map, with six constituencies being wiped out and replaced by eight new ones.

The Macleod constituency was established in 1907 and altered in 1924. It voted Conservative in 1908-11, Liberal 1911-17, Unionist 1917-21, Progressive 1921-25, U.F.A. 1925-35, Social Credit 1935-58, and Progressive Conservative in the 1958 and 1963 elections.

Present Member of Parliament for Macleod is Dr. Lawrence E. Kindt (PC) of Nanton, elected in 1958 and re-elected in 1963. His Nanton home is just inside the western boundary of the new riding of Crowfoot.

DR. LAWRENCE E. KINDT

"It doesn't make sense," he said in summing up his reaction to having his riding split between Crowfoot and Rocky Mountain. His farm home, just northwest of Nanton, is now located in Crowfoot along with Jack Horner, of Pollockville, MP for Arcadia, whose home is in the new Crowfoot riding.

Dr. Kindt said he had to give the matter much detailed thought before he decided in which riding he would seek nomination.

"I can see no particular reason for this arbitrary splitting," he said. "It doesn't make sense because the Rocky Mountain area is used by the adjacent areas."

He said he was going to have a closer look into the recommendations of "these people working in the dark. This is supposed to be a non-political thing but we're going to have a look into it."

He added "since I live in the new riding of Crowfoot, I would seek the nomination in that riding, if the boundaries stay as they are recommended."

PATTERSON PROTESTS

Ernie Patterson, Claresholm mayor and Social Credit candidate in the present Macleod constituency, said "I don't know what I'm going to do."

He said neither the new Crowfoot nor the new Rocky Mountain ridings "allow for any geographical or socio-economic unity... the problems of people living in the foothills have nothing to do with the problems of people living along the Saskatchewan border."

"It's impossible for a candidate

TORONTO TO BAGHDAD

Every hour, night and day, the Canadian newsprint mills produce the equivalent of a 6,000 mile, five-foot ribbon of paper that would stretch from Toronto to Baghdad.

Rev. Robert Starrett officiated at the funeral service held at Williams Lake Funeral Chapel and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion formed an honor guard at the burial ground.

On Saturday, July 3, another of these early morning jaunts will be attempted, this time to the North Hill Shopping Centre at Calgary where the band will entertain from 8 to 10 a.m.

Following Monday night's rehearsal of the senior band, members were invited to the Dave Schierman home for lunch.

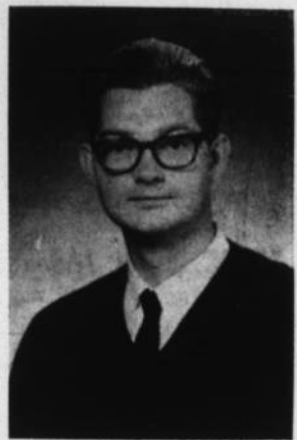

The fate of the Elks July Celebration was rained out. At 7:00 a.m. that morning band members squished their way into the Vulcan bakery from where they were to leave for Carstairs and their participation in the rodeo parade but it met the same fate as the concerts. The parade was planned again for Tuesday morning of this week but at the same time and the same place Tuesday the same news came over a long distance phone call so its cancellation is permanent this time.

The fate of the Elks July Celeto keep up communications with the public of his riding if there are no roads, and the only way of travel is by aircraft. The ridings are drawn up without any consideration of Alberta's geography. I am very much opposed and will protest."

M.D. Degree

Son of Mr. and Mrs. David Irwin of Brant, David Dawson received the degree of Doctor of Medicine at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, convocation exercises this spring.

DR. DAVID DAWSON

Dr. Dawson received his public and high school education at Brant and Vulcan and in 1959, when he entered university, was awarded the University of Alberta War Memorial Scholarship. In 1960 he won a Canadian Legion Scholarship and a University Honor Scholarship for attaining an average of 84% in his first year university.

Dr. Dawson will intern at the Royal Alexandra Hospital in Edmonton.

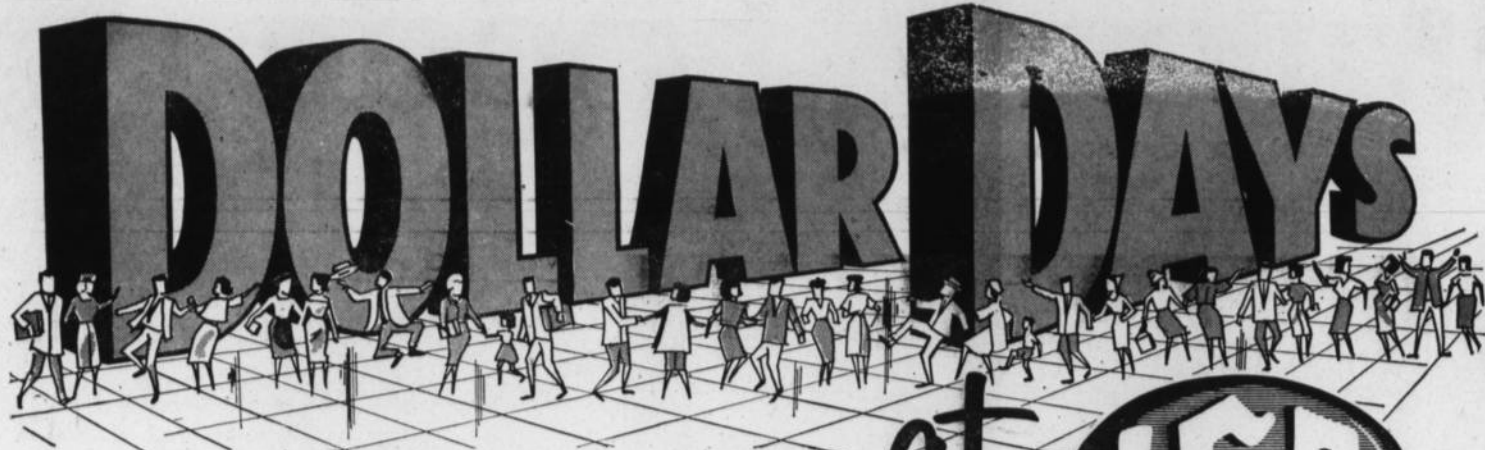

Former Vulcan Resident Dies In B.C. Crash

Mrs. Frank Anderson of Williams Lake, B.C., the former Martha Beulah Wiersma of Vulcan, died in Cariboo Memorial Hospital, Williams Lake, on June 21, as the result of severe injuries received in a car accident near Williams Lake on June 19.

Mrs. Anderson was a passenger in a car driven by her brother-in-law, Harold Grimsrud, which was involved in a head-on collision with a pickup truck driven by Donald Doberer of Williams Lake. The car and the truck were both total wrecks but both drivers received only minor injuries. The truck driver has been charged by RCMP with "causing death by criminal negligence."

Mrs. Anderson was born and educated in Vulcan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wiersma. Besides her husband, Francis, she leaves three small children, Vicki Roseann (9), David Perry (6) and Scott (1); three brothers, Simon and James, Calgary, and Richard at Redcliff; three sisters, Mrs. Pat Rourke (Greta), Kamloops, B.C., Mrs. Poxton (Jean), Coleman, Alta., and Mrs. Harold Grimsrud (Bette), Williams Lake; and her parents at Vulcan.

Rev. Robert Starrett officiated at the funeral service held at Williams Lake Funeral Chapel and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion formed an honor guard at the burial ground.

FROM THE LEGISLATURE

by J. Wally Strang

The report last week that Alberta may adopt a prescription plan has many of our politicians scratching their heads. The plan which has the endorsement of the Pharmaceutical Association as presented, suggests that a yearly fee of 25 dollars be charged and a dollar for each prescription. It has also been suggested that teachers and their families be used as a pilot project and from the results the fee would be set.

The plan from this writer's corner has caught many with their guard down and because of our medical plan it would have seemed more logical if the government tried to introduce this type of legislation.

We know the costs of drugs is ridiculous and should be regulated ... but at the same time why not include the cost of eye glasses. It's a well known fact that many optometrists charge what the traffic will stand.

Why not assess everyone 3 dollars a year and for this they can have their eyes tested and one pair of glasses of their choice. This may be a very impractical figure ... but the idea is the same as the pharmaceutical association is proposing

CHANGES COMING

By the time this column has gone to press the long awaited meeting in Drayton Valley will have become history. Reports to this writer indicate the farmers in the Drayton Valley are not the only ones unhappy with the government's right of entry act. They tell me 19 farmers in the Mayerthorpe district paid $100 each in memberships and according to all reports they are hopping mad and barricades may soon be brought into play. Would like to go out on a limb and predict a change in government thinking ... Don't be surprised to see the legislation changed to allow oil company representatives and farmers the right to negotiate.

IS THERE A SCANDAL?

Last week's mention of a certain cabinet minister being set-up for the firing squad is about to become a reality. Am told certain documents have been delivered to the RCMP and the people doing so are demanding action ... or else. While rumours indicate corruption charges ... I'm from Missouri.

AROUND THE CORNER

You read it here first ... Look for a 1966 Spring election ... The provincial pot is boiling ... and indications are it should happen next May or June.

Three mounted Indians in full dress regalia added much color to the Lake McGregor Race Meet parade Saturday, June 12. They are Joe BearRobe, Art and Harry Ayoungman, all of Gleichen.

80 Nesting Pheasants Help Renew Bird Population

Rains on Tuesday, June 15 gave a watery welcome to about 80 pheasants which were released in the Vulcan district by the Provincial Game Hatchery at Brooks.

Jerry Pelchat, head of the Brooks operation trucked the birds over and was joined here by Bert Freeman, local game officer, the game officer from Claresholm, John Andrews, president of the Vulcan and District Fish and Game Association and Glen Dahl, past president of the local group.

Accompanying Mr. Pelchat was Paul Presidente hunter-training officer for the Provincial Department of Lands and Forests who is making a study of pheasant reproduction and releases throughout the south part of the province.

Location of the releases is not given but three areas with heavy cover received the birds in the ratio of one rooster to nine hens. This is two-year-old breeding stock and marks the first time this area has received such stock. The objective is to help bring back local pheasant population to the level of last fall. The severe winter caused heavy loss of pheasants in this district and on down to Carmangay, Nobleford, Barons and Vauxhall. All of these areas were to receive birds during this trip.

The trip from Brooks didn't interfere with the business of the hens. Loaded at 10 a.m., each crate had six or seven eggs which had been laid enroute.

A hen from the hatchery to eight to 14 chicks but the average survival is between four and six birds.

It is expected another release of cock pheasants will be made here before hunting season. Experiments in stocking the northern part of the province have proven unsuccessful so this is being discontinued for the present.

NOTICE

A Special Committee on Administrative Boards and Tribunals has been established by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to study, and receive representations and recommendations, on the following matters:

1. A thorough survey and consideration of the Alberta legislation conferring jurisdiction or power on administrative boards and tribunals and the functions and power exercised by them.
2. Whether such boards and tribunals infringe on the rights of individual citizens and if so, in what way and to what extent.
3. Whether there should be a greater provision for appeals to the courts from the decisions of such boards and tribunals.
4. Whether such boards and tribunals have a practical value in adjudicating matters without involving individual citizens in costly and time-consuming court procedures and whether the public interest is thereby served and if so, in what way and to what extent.
5. Whether there is need for a tribunal to which aggrieved individuals could have resort for the purpose of having decisions or actions by regulatory boards and tribunals and departments and agencies of the Government, investigated and reviewed, and if there is such a need, what form of tribunal would be best suited for that purpose and what powers should it be given.

The Committee invites all persons, Companies and Associations who are interested in the above matters or any of them to file with its undersigned Secretary in writing not later than September 18th, 1965, their representations, recommendations and submissions. Following that date the Committee will announce the dates and places of public meetings at which the submissions will be heard and discussed.

Secretary of the Committee,

Early Spring Wedding
Unites Mossleigh Couple

A pretty spring wedding was solemnized in St. Matthew's United Church, Calgary, on March 19 when Judith Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson, exchanged vows with Douglas Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Green, all of Mossleigh. Rev. Walker officiated at the double ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a full length gown of white peau de sole satin, with embroidered lace and pearl trim, three-quarter length sleeves, a round neckline and an overskirt which formed a long train. Her shoulder length veil was held by a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of red roses and wore a single strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Attending the bride were her cousins, Miss Margaret Wood of Vernon, B.C. as matron of honour and Miss Faye Armstrong of Calgary as bridesmaid. They wore identical full length gowns of gold peau de sole with matching veiled pillbox hats and carried cascades of bronze mums.

Gerald Green, brother of the groom and John Robinson, brother of the bride, were best men. Leonard Robinson and Wayne Green, brothers of the bride and groom, were ushers.

An organ prelude was played before the ceremony and during the signing of the register.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Robinson chose a pink wool three piece suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink roses. Mrs. Green chose a two piece dress of blue brocade with black and white accessories, and a white carnation and pink rose corsage.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the Trade Winds Motor Hotel. Bob Bertschy, uncle of the bride was master of ceremonies.

The toast to the bride was proposed by another uncle, Walter

Crow. Gerald Green gave a toast to the bridesmaids. The headtable was centered by a three-tiered cake baked by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Oliver Blair. Wayne Robinson, the bride's youngest brother was in charge of the guest book.

Open house was held at the home of the bride's parents. A dance followed in Mossleigh Hall.

For travelling the bride chose a three piece coral suit with black accessories and a coral hat. She wore a white carnation corsage.

After a honeymoon in Montana and British Columbia, the happy couple are making their home in Calgary.

Out of town guests were from Majorville, Arrowwood, Bassano, Edmonton, Red Deer, Mossleigh and Vulcan.

Town Improvements

Indications are that Vulcan, in 1965, will again have a year of unspectacular but steady growth. Permits have been granted for several new homes and for a new business building and a machinery depot. A new motel is also in the planning stage.

The town's borrowing power has been stretched almost to the limit by the construction of the new water system but this all-important project, now completed assures an ample supply of good water.

Fluoridation of our water supply might well be worth the attention of our town council. This would be a minor project, financially speaking, but the evidence is overwhelming that it would pay off in major benefits insofar as dental health is concerned. Vulcan's water was naturally fluoridated when it came from town wells, but the river water we now use contains no fluoride.

At the risk of being accused of dreaming up ways for the town to spend money it hasn't got, we'd also suggest that a long-range hard-surfacing program for town streets is overdue. We do not advocate an extensive program financed by borrowings, but surely a modest program of a couple of blocks a year could be worked out. Other towns are doing this and paying for it out of current revenue, using a minimum of equipment and their own work crews, so it should not be dismissed as "impossible" for Vulcan. Paving of residential streets does not require the heavy, mixed base course such as the downtown area has and at Fort Macleod and Brooks residential paving by town crews has proven to be a successful venture.

Adoption of a "do nothing" policy at this stage in the town's growth would be regrettable.

Classical Concert

Major, Opus 7 and next accompanied violinist Gwyneth Roberts in the Sonata in A Major, Opus 100 by Johannes Brahms.

Miss Lindstedt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Lindstedt, known in the Champion district where Mr. Lindstedt at one time taught school, played the Sonata in E Flat Major, Opus 31, No. 3 by Beethoven, as her first work of the evening.

Following intermission Miss Jamison returned to play Rondo Capriccioso, in E Major Opus 14 by Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy. For her second selection Miss Lindstedt played the Preludes by Claude Debussy and to close the evening Gwyneth Roberts presented her own composition, Impressions For Violin And Piano. Encores were played by the girls in order.

Miss Jamison undertook perhaps the most demanding role of the program in providing accompaniment to the violinist in addition to her role as soloist but she performed with apparent ease.

Although the three young ladies gave a professional sounding performance throughout, the second half of the program might have been the more favorable. However, all six compositions carried at times so much deep chord work, difficult swift moving passages and intricate exchange of counter-melodies over original themes that only a trained ear could pick any minor flaws in technique.

It is possible that some of the audience may have wished for one more familiar work to complete the program but they appeared surprised and extremely pleased at the over-all talent displayed by the three artists.

Convention

the assistant director is Lola Lange.

Mrs. Johnston, provincial president of the FWUA addressed the meeting in the afternoon and spoke of the National Farm Women's Union and its representations to Ottawa and how well received they had been. She stated that according to questionnaires that had been circulated, if and when farm organizations are amalgamated, there should be provisions made for a woman's section and a junior section in such amalgamations. She made reference to the Canadian Citizenship camp sponsored by the FWUA in which understanding between groups was being fostered; the FWUA hoped the attendance would be made up of about one third Indians, one third Metis and one third of other groups.

Anders Anderson, provincial FUA vice-president reviewed recent legislation on marketing boards and crop insurance and made reference to the new machinery act being prepared by the Department of Agriculture. Mr. Anderson stated that farmers are becoming fewer in number and their problems are becoming greater. He stated that from 10 to 11 percent of the population was now providing the food, clothes and shelter for the rest of the nation and at the same time changing conditions are providing the people with more and more leisure time. He remarked that with education being one of the great future needs of our nation, he was surprised to learn that provincial governments did not provide definite advice to local authorities regarding the construction of school buildings. It was his opinion that there was too much localized thinking in a day of international communication. He constantly repeated that the threatened fragmentation of farm organizations in the face of foregoing circumstances, was unthinkable.

Twenty-one resolutions came before the convention but all could not be dealt with. The following are some of those which were passed.

It was resolved that the convention request radio stations CFAC and CFCN and TV station CHCT to reinstate their farm programs. It was resolved that the provincial government be urged to do everything in its power to assimilate Hutterite children into surrounding society. Another similar resolution calls upon the federal government to gradually abolish the system of special schools for Indian children and that they too be gradually assimilated into surrounding society.

It was resolved that FUA membership fee be raised to $7 with an acceleration of $1 every year until it reaches $10. District 12 is to have a picnic this summer. The convention resolved to express its concern to both the federal and provincial ministers of agriculture regarding the proposed importation of cattle from France and the threatened U.S. border closing to Canadian cattle. One resolution urges the central office to dispense with mass tours to Ottawa because the apparent results do not warrant the expense involved. It further calls for expression with a unified voice through the Federation.

One resolution, calling for a provincial traffic legislation to change full stop signs entering main highways to "yield" signs and the elimination of all speed limits on four-lane highways, was divided into two resolutions. Another resolution urged that before any more work was done by way of marketing boards, there should be a 12-month waiting period to observe the end results of Manitoba's voluntary marketing board.

The provincial government will be approached and urged to pass legislation compelling all cars to carry approved highway safety flares the same as trucks are now required to do. Serious consideration is to be given to the suggestion that farmer-owned co-operatives set aside a percentage of their profits for the purpose of promoting the farmer's interests through the FUA and FWUA.

Following the program, Mrs. Claude Mueller made the presentation of the gifts on behalf of the community. Mrs. Elva Smith and Mrs. Dennis Bullock, sister of the groom, assisted Mr. and Mrs. Smith in opening the gifts. Later a lunch was served by the hostesses.

The hall was gaily decorated in yellow, mauve and white streamers.

Several other resolutions were not dealt with and others were lost. Lack of time prevented the convention dealing with all resolutions.

According to the leadership reports at the convention there is a weakness in the Foothills sub-district section of District 12 which the new leadership hopes to remedy. The general trend was highly favorable to the idea of the Canadian farm organizations amalgamating into one organization but with separate women's and junior sections. Delegates left with optimism and high hopes for the future of agriculture in the area.

A decorated parasol hung over the table where the bride and groom sat while opening their gifts. The bride and groom were presented with a cake decorated in white and mauve. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. George Mueller and Mrs. Hartley McDonald.

Falls from ladders are mostly incurred by men when they are working on the outside of the house; women have more accidents when they are engaged in housework, reaching heights by using ladder substitutes. Almost all the troubles can be blamed on reaching for high spots off to one side from insecure ladders or to ladders in need of repair.

A NEW LIVESTOCK PEST

Western Canada has a new pest of cattle, — face flies. These flies were first found in North America in 1952 in Nova Scotia and have moved very rapidly westward. During the summer of 1964, specimens were collected from cattle in a community pasture west of Vir-den, Manitoba, and were numerous enough to indicate that they were breeding in that area.

The adult flies appear very similar to houseflies. They do not bite but feed on exudates from an animal's body. The flies cluster on the muzzle and around the margin of the eyes, the most common sources of secretion. They also feed on fluids exuding from open wounds. Because of their habit of feeding on exudate and of moving from animal to animal, they are incriminated in the transmission of infectious abortion, pink eye, and mammalian eye worm.

The behaviour and life-cycle of the insect are such that common insecticides are of little value in their control. They lay their eggs on fresh cow droppings where the larvae feed and develop. Pupation occurs in the soil near the edges of the droppings and they soon emerge as adult flies. The time required from egg to adult is only about three weeks.

The Lethbridge Research Station is keeping a close watch on their spread and would appreciate receiving reports of their occurrence and, if possible, specimens.
